

Animal Sculpture Scavenger Hunt

Our animal friends have returned this winter! Help us locate them all to redeem a Winter Haven-themed prize* inside the Perkins Visitor Center.

This nocturnal creature found the perfect place to perch on the great bigleaf linden tree. There, they can watch all the comings and goings from Glyndor Gallery and the Great Lawn. Who do you find there?

The rabbit loves being close to the Flower Garden. Plus, from this location, it can welcome all visitors as they enter the garden. What tree did the rabbit pick?

This urban creature was struck by the beauty and majesty of the copper beech tree and decided to sit beneath it for a spell. This happens to many visitors when they first enter the garden and make their way to Glyndor Gallery. Who do you find by the tree?

This history buff loves our seasonal decorations and is always first in line for the new House Tours. Who do you find outside Wave Hill House?

The squirrel has nestled itself into a tree between the Perkins Visitor Center and Wave Hill House looking for snacks that visitors may drop as they leave The Café. Which tree did the squirrel pick?

This unlikely pair have become fast friends over their love to shop! Together, they've secured prime position outside the Perkins Visitor Center, so they never miss the next sale or new merchandise drop. Who are the new Paisley Bed residents?

This avian pair enjoys the sunset over the Palisades and found the hardy kiwi on this structure to be a fitting location to take in the view. What spot did they choose?

Found all our animal friends? Make sure you visit the Perkins Visitor Center to redeem your prize*!
